Leave all what's sane behind you.
Let all this darkness find you.
Pray there's someone to guide you
when you feel the fear inside you

They are coming, don't try running,
coz' your feet won't obey you.
They are coming, don't try running,
coz' your feet won't obey you.

You think your safe in your bed,
but the threat comes from your own head.

Can not hide your own mind.
Haunted by his own mind.

Could this be more unlike you.
Strange mind and lust inside you.
There is no one to save you
when you feel the fear inside you.

They are coming...

Your nearly choked and wet.
But the filth comes from your own head.

Can not hide...
