Nothing's gonna change the way
I feel when you call my name
The stars, they shine for me
Wanting all you'll ever need
Needing all you'll ever want
My love, I give to you.

And at times I know it's hard to stay together.
When I'm in your arms there's nowhere I feel better

'Cause baby it's not a dream, it's reality
You are my soul, you're my sanity
I can't explain but I know it's for ever
And if you feel the same way
Just let me hear you say
You feel it too

Take me in your arms again
Love me like the world will end
The way you used to do
Good times they will come and go
Hard times we will surely know
But our love will pull us through
And if at times you feel you're sailing stormy weather
With your hand in mine we'll face this world together

'Cause baby it's not a dream it's reality
You are my soul, you're my sanity
I can't explain but I know it's for ever
And if you feel the same way
Just let me hear you say
You feel it too

[Violin Solo]

'Cause baby it's not a dream it's reality
You are my soul, you're my sanity
I can't explain but I know it's for ever
And if you feel the same way
Just let me hear you say

But baby it's not a dream it's reality

You are my soul, you're my sanity
I can't explain but I know it's for ever
And if you feel the same way
Just let me hear you say
You feel it too
