Within the wolf and part of the hoody crow
The shadow of the midnight owl or scorpion at high noon
Lord take this tin can from my lips
But warmth only comes from burning

The Dark Man's purpose will be served within the secret
Ways
His hands will deal the spades from within the dead deck
If you wear the stone be safe for the while
But in the dark five minutes won't exist

The Dark Man's face will never deign to let you see it's Grin
His eyes will glitter light from way beyond the flames
If you wear the stone be safe for the while
But in the dark five minutes won't exist

The Dark Man's feet will always walk the highways Underground
His face will madly grin from across the high places
If you wear the stone be safe for the while
But in the dark five minutes won't exist
