They said I didn't know what to do
With my time or what to pour my heart into
After I lost her.
'Cause all that love got bottled up,
And sittin' 'round the house day after day
Only made it worse.

But time goes by, and life goes on.
You can only hold it in so long -

Love's gotta go somewhere.

So, knowin' how much she loved flowers,
I planted her some daisies,
Oh, that late July dirt was dry and hard.
But once I started diggin'
I dug until I pretty much
Dug up the whole back yard.

Well, the neighbors must'a thought that I'd gone crazy,
But it all made perfect sense to me -

Love's gotta go somewhere.
And every day I've come out here
For about the last five years -
Winter, spring, summer, fall.
And I can feel her here with me -
Who's to say it couldn't be?
Why not? 'Cause after all

Love's gotta go somewhere...Love's gotta go somewhere.

I don't know how it happened,
But people started stoppin' by
To have a little look around.
And guys have popped "the Question" -
Ten have answered "yes" so far
And nine have already said their vows.

What makes this place so special, Heaven only knows,
But if you asked me why, I'd say, "Well, I suppose..."

Love's gotta go somewhere...Love's gotta go
somewhere.
Love's gotta go somewhere...Love's gotta go somewhere.
