Say you know it
his love is showing
you love how to be real realize youre not alone this time so breathe and let it out

let it out
this is the time you leave before i can even see where your heart lies
cause all i know is
you're waiting for me
you're waiting for me

you're waiting for me

so please sit down
im just waiting for your answer before my voice runs out and youre left to stand in the cold, hear me out
because these words cant be your code i am learning to we are leaning to
