Yea, Ooooooooooh ooooooooooh , Lyrics, Its ma letter

This my letter to the one who isn't here
You know who you are Here go my letter to the one who aint living, my brother from another, Yea

I hope your listening, its your boy your soldier.
Had it been treating you upstairs Hope they sell some good food up there Me and the fam are ok apart from all the ups and downs,
By the way Mana 22 and got baby now, Looks just like his old man,ear to ear, shoulder to shoulder feet toes hand like his old man And yer the old man you know how he is, instead of saying, nothings changed but his age and shit

He brought a bike, it's pretty bad I ant gona deny that but I don't know why he bought it when he doesn't buy that An yo baby sis drop outta high school, and got J O B 9 to 5 but that's cool
She loving it
You know what will make us all happy
You where here in the flesh Watching all this shit happen â€¦.

CHOROUS

Its my letter to the one I love,
You had to go away , man we miss you so much,
Things hadn't changed but we stepping it up
What always stays the same is that you live threw us

Its my letter to the one I love,
You had to go away , man we miss you so much,
Things hadn't changed but we stepping it up

Is it cool where you hanging know, drink brew, blaze clouds,
At least where you staying aint a hater tryna play it foul
I seen your bitch she married and got a baby now,
And every time I see a brother I just want to lay him down,
And big sis still drink piss now and then
And little Harlem's getting older you should see how big he is
He naughter at times but you know what kids are like
And this one is infatuated by the rep of life Speaking of that single is doing big things, finally got a deal and give us what the streets need The dream is in the making for both of us and hopefully we make money
To take mother out the shit whole she be living in and its boring she puff some much Cigarettes its got me worrying
And you know what will make us all happy,
You where here in the flesh watching all this shit happen.

CHORUS

Its my letter to the one I love,
You had to go away , man we miss you so much,
Things hadn't changed but we stepping it up
What always stays the same is that you live threw us

Its my letter to the one I love,
You had to go away , man we miss you so much,
Things hadn't changed but we stepping it up
What always stays the same is that you live threw us..

First video we did, man I wish you where there
Had the whole hood with us, but I wish you where there
You know the whole fam loves you, and we wish you where here
Could see, touch smell, listen and breath air

First video we did, man I wish you where there
Had the whole hood with us, but I wish you where there
You know the whole fam loves you, and we wish you
Could see, touch smell, listen and breath air

Still think about you ,even though you disappeared I can feel it in the air
That you still here when I think a bout it

You where the same age as me 20 when you departed 6 years ago ,Its been a long time since your departure
A lot of things ,type of things that make me mad and happy
We all grown up dealing with reality,
I got a question ta ask, its more like a favour Say hooray to aunty Emma when you see her for me Tell her that's we aint forgot her,
And say waddup to all the falling shoulder Atleast you got some boys with you now to smoke some dope with but You know what will make us all happy you where here in the flesh watching al this shit happen
