I got used to you
I get star-struck when you re in the room
I got used to you Gwen
Well I got used to this
Feeling that you always gave me
I keep pushing forward
Never looking back
We start to realize
The challenges of life
I keep pushing forward
I'll never live this down
You won t see me tomorrow
On your mouth is
Where I d imagine my name
We've got this fresh start
You re leaving bound tomorrow
Last weekend at the lake
You re all I thought about
No I can't get away
Because you re so addicting
I can't get away
Cause baby you re addicting
Well look who runs this town now
You try and push me further
Welcome to this two way street
You know you are not welcome here
Spit n shine my badge clean
I got used to you
And now this feelings gone away
You make me want to destroy everything beautiful that comes my way
But I got used to you
I get star-struck when you re in the room
I got used to Gwen
Well I got used to this
Feeling that you always gave me
We re living our lives
Swear we know who we are
If it's growing up
I guess we'll hold on Hold on
Just watch me run

Through the crosshairs of your gun
Widen that lens
Your hand is steady
Are you trigger-happy now?
Watch me run
Through the crosshairs of your gun
I'm so sick of this shit
Walking up my pathway
That's when I knew
I got used to you
You re starting a war within
I feel you crawling
Underneath my skin
