"It's Not Me It's You"

So what did you think would happen?
Did you think that I believe in
All of your stupid lies?
Well not tonight, tonight
Why don't you pack your things now?
Because your time has run out
I'm done wasting my time on you

Give me a reason before you go
Give me a reason, I need to know
Give me a reason so I can let you go
Give me a reason, my heart's in two
Give me a reason that I love you
Give me a reason so I can let you go

You say that I act crazy
I'll show you crazy, baby
You always win the fight, but not tonight, tonight
I'm gonna take my chances
No need for second glances
I'm done wasting my time on you

Give me a reason before you go
Give me a reason, I need to know
Give me a reason so I can let you go
Give me a reason, my heart's in two
Give me a reason that I love you
Give me a reason so I can let you go
Give me a reason before you go
Give me a reason, I need to know
Give me a reason so I can let you go
Give me a reason, my heart's in two
Give me a reason that I love you
Give me a reason so I can let you go
