Ho, ye Slovaks! our beloved language still surviveth;
While the faithful heart within us for our nation striveth;
Yes, the Slovak spirit liveth; it will live forever Hell and thunder, 'gainst us raging, vain is your endeavor.

God to us our tongue entrusted, God, who sways the
thunder;

Who on earth then shall presume this gift from us to sunder!

Though the earth were filled with demons, our rights
assailing,

We defy them. God is with us, His strong arm prevailing.

Though about us storms are raging, bringing
devastation,

Rocks disrupting, oaks uprooting, shaking earth's foundation,

Yet we stand like castle walls, our vested rights
asserting;

May the earth engulf the traitor from our ranks
deserting.
