I want to take you through the mountains
Because I know you'll love the view.
I'll bring back ice from a freezing fountain
If I can't make the trip with you.
If I can't make the trip with you.

We'll head on over to Seattle
And taste the fish fresh from the sea.
But if you don't want to weather the battle
Then I guess it's just alright by me.

I hear it's beautiful on the Oregon coast.
I heard it once or twice in a song.
But you know the thing that I would want the most
Is for you to want to come along.

We'll head on down to San Francisco
And see the sun set on the bay.

I'll take some pictures if you can't go
To let you know I'm here to stay.
To let you know I'm here to stay.

I hear it's beautiful on the California coast.
I heard it once or twice in a song.
But you know the thing that I want the most
Is for you to want to come along.

We'll head back home through the mountains
I'll still take pictures of the view.
Of streams and creeks and freezing fountains
And the valleys they run through.
If I can't make the trip with you.
