The bright light of the boulevard
Is shining in your tender eyes
Your perfume is exciting me
It's still the same
Michelle, how I love when we love
And I love when you whisper je t'aime
Michelle, mon amour. Is it true?
Do you feel the way I do?
A world without you, a world on my own
Without your love my heart will turn to stone
A world without you, a day without light
Without your touch I couldn't stand one night
Oh Michelle
I know there'll be no better heart
No better heart to hold on to
If you should ever let me down
I can't survive
Michelle, how I love when we love
And I love when you whisper je t'aime
Michelle, mon amour. Is it true?
Do you feel the way I do?
A world without you, a world on my own
Without your love my heart will turn to stone
A world without you, a day without light
Without your touch I couldn't stand one night
Oh Michelle
Girl: C'est toi. Et ce soir je te veux faire l'amour avec toi. Je t'aime. Je
Sais mon amour que tu es que tout, le seul pour moi.
(It's you. I want to make love to you tonight. I love you. I Know my love that you're everything, the only one for me)
A world without you, a world on my own
Without your love my heart will turn to stone
A world without you
A world without you
Oh Michelle
