"Baby Come Home"

Look in my eyes and you'll find out.
Just wanna be sure that you know how I feel cause it's true.
Oh, baby, I'm crying, just follow your heart.
Don't break our world apart.

Oh, baby come home, where have you gone?
I'm searching my soul for the reason you're not with me.
Just come home, be by my side.
Just throw me a lifeline, babe, I'll cry out to you.
Just come home.

Look in your heart, there are no doubts.
The cards we were dealt in this game, they went wrong.
So I feel, it's time for a new start.
So baby, come back 'cos I'm waiting for you.

Oh, baby come home, where have you gone?
I'm searching my soul for the reason you're not with me.
Just come home, be by my side.
Just throw me a lifeline, babe, I'll cry out to you.
Just come home.
