Hold me now. Hold me now.
Don't you wait any longer.
Hold me now. Hold me now.
Don't you wait any longer. Longer.

Time to hide myself away. Feel my body shiver.
It's the oldest game we play.
High above this tension in the air. Took some time to get there.
Now it's more than I can bare.

Hold me now. Hold me now.
Don't you wait any longer.
Hold me now. Hold me now.
Don't you wait any longer. Longer.

Feelings growing day by day. Eyes are telling stories.
Melting all our lies away.
They don't like the way you care. About your hidden feelings.
It's still more than I can bare.

Hold me now. Hold me now.
Don't you wait any longer.
Hold me now. Hold me now.
Don't you wait any longer. Longer.
