A lonely tear runs down her face
She's crying tonight,
Beside her soul the flames of love
Are drowning again

Can't you see he cares for you
He can't eat he can't sleep he just cries
You're the one that he adores. don't you see. (don't you see)

In his heart, in his soul, he will always love you that's forever
In his heart, in his soul, you will always be together

(A lonely heart it's true, a lonely heart for you,
And don't you know he hides these feelings
He needs the sun from you, don't break his heart in two,
All he needs is you in his arms)

Another day, another night, still waiting, for you
Don't let me down so easily, so give him a chance

Can't you see he cares for you
He can't eat he can't sleep he just cries
You're the one that he adores. don't you see. (don't you see)
