Since you went away.
I'm like someone who's left in the rain.
Girl, it's true and then when the weekend comes round
I start going insane.
Without you lost in memories burning deep inside.
Friday's hard to take cause you're always on my mind.

Rainy day - rainy Friday. Rainy Friday brings me down.
Same old game on a Friday. Looking for a heart in town.
Walking to familiar places. Talking in the usual scene.
Looking into pretty faces. It's my Friday night routine.
In rainy Friday - you saw me.

The Monday's again.

In my world and I try to forget those bad news.
But then when the week's going on.
There I break down again.
And it seems since she's never cared.
So look what you've done.
Friday's hard to take - when you've lost your only one.

Rainy day - rainy Friday. Rainy Friday brings me down.
Same old game on a Friday. Looking for a heart in town.
Walking to familiar places. Talking in the usual scene.
Looking into pretty faces. It's my Friday night routine.
In rainy Friday - you saw me.
