Wouldn't it be good? Wouldn't it be good?

Take a look around you baby. And you will find.
So many people out there walking by.
They don't seem to love no babe don't. Not even life.
They're standing lonesome in this endless night.

Wouldn't it be good to do it better.
Wouldn't it be good?
Wouldn't it be good to stay together.
Wouldn't it be good?
Wouldn't it be good? Wouldn't it be good?

Take a look inside you baby. You'll recognize.
My lonely face behind the blinded pair of eyes.
Say that you'll be my guide. And help me see.
Your love can shine the light where darkness used to be.

Wouldn't it be good to do it better.
Wouldn't it be good?
Wouldn't it be good to stay together.
Wouldn't it be good?
Wouldn't it be good? Wouldn't it be good?
