Ooh
What am I gonna do?
What am I gonna do?

(Verse 1)

You're one dimensional you don't go that deep Ya you can, scream and fight with me half the night and then fall asleep, Ya you can, wake up thinking nothings wrong and my bags are packed
Ya you can, tell me how you're missing me and not call me back
But I won't cry, why should I

(Chorus)

You're a guy, that's alright
There's nothing more and nothing less
You are what you are and it is what it is
Take your time, it's no crime
I know eventually you'll call
Cause after all you're just a guy

(Verse 2)

I like how you flip a switch your either off or on, so simple
For me to explain a girl would take a whole other song if you can Give me everything you got to give your gonna find that you can
Chill out knowing I respect that I'm not on your mind
And I won't cry, why should I

I'll survive

(Chorus)

You're a guy, that's alright
There's nothing more and nothing less
You are what you are and it is what it is
Take your time, it's no crime
I know eventually you'll call
Cause after all you're just a guy

(Bridge)

You're just a guy and that's just fine
Do what you do but just be mine
You drive me mad and that's okay
We have a deal... you know...
The basic fact is I'm a girl

And you alone can't change the world
Cause you're just a guy ya
You're just a guy ya it's alright ya ya

You're a guy, that's alright
There's nothing more and nothing less
You are what you are and it is what it is
Take your time,
It's no crime
I know eventually you'll call
Cause after all you're just a guy

You're just a guy and that's just fine
Do what you do cause you're just a guy
That's alright I know eventually you'll call
Cause after all you're just a guy
