There's a point off this shore
It's a point that we're both missing, missing I know
It's beaoning bright through the night
Don't downplay this downfall
Cause no one wishes less on the sun
And no one casts their dreams less worthy
Upon this moon
We listen to the words that sway
We learn from the tops of the towers we pray
We listen to the words that sway
We learn from the tops of the towers we pray

Chorus:

So let's dance on the dark side of this moon
Sleep on the surface of the sun
And I will lay here, I will lay here with you
The Mona Lisa smiles at faces like you
And the moon won't teach this world to cry
So I will lay here, I will lay here with you

Alaska's lights never shone so bright
It's a sight that we're both missing, missing I know
Shallowest light but it burns this night
Don't downplay this love
Cause no one wishes less on these

Constellations

From the tops of the towers, from the tops of the towers we pray

Chorus:

So let's dance on the dark side of this moon
Sleep on the surface of the sun
And I will lay here, I will lay here with you
The Mona Lisa smiles at faces like you
And the moon won't teach this world to cry
So I will lay here, I will lay here with you

Bridge:

No one sings louder, no one sings
Louder into the blue

Chorus:

So let's dance on the dark side of this moon

Sleep on the surface of the sun

And I will lay here, I will lay here with you

The Mona Lisa smiles at faces like you

And the moon won't teach this world to cry

So I will lay here, I will lay here with you
