One little river,
Buried down deep,
Moving under highways,
Everybody feels the same.
If everybody feels the same,
Why's nobody talking 'bout it?

What did wise woman say?
She said that we're most afraid,
Not of our darkness but of our light.
Remember just yesterday,
All the dreams you put away
On the shelf for someone else,
Someone better than you?

Your heart wants to speak the truth.
Your heart longs to be known.
It wants to be known by you.

Go on and let it all out!
Go on say too much,
Let someone know you.
Let it all out!
Go on say too much,
Let someone know.
Go go go!
Go go go!

Words are like rivers,
Flowing to the sea.
Don't bury them down,
Don't bury them deep.
Just keep the river flowing,
Get in and swim.
Don't be standing back: begin.
Begin begin begin.

Cause your heart wants to speak the truth.
And your heart wants to be loved.
It wants to be loved by you.

Go on and let it all out!
Go on say too much,
Let someone know you.
Let it all out!
Go on say too much,
Let someone know.

Go-oh!
Go on say too much,
Let someone know you.
Go-oh!
Go on say too much,
Let someone know.
Go go go!
Go go go!
Go go go!
Go go go!

Let it all out!
Go on say too much,
Let someone know you.
Let it all out!
Go on say too much,
Let someone know.
Let it all out!

One little river,
Buried down deep,
Moving under highways,
Everybody feels the same.
If everybody feels the same,
Why's nobody talking 'bout it?
