back when the pictures were silent back when the music was new back when remember was just reminding i played the piano till evening and when the light grew too dim i climbed into bed by the picture window

goodbye my love
goodbye my love

we took the train to the seashore and buried our toes in the sand lost to the waves and the salted sunshine

goodbye my love

follow the cobblestone walkways as the bells ring overhead the garden was green through the picture window

goodbye my love
