"Blue Train"

Watchin' the long places ridin' this run down track
And the lost places from a dream that never brings them back
And sad truth is nothing but a cold hard fact I'm ridin' the blue train over the miles yet to cover a ghost in a hurry to fade
I'm taking it one way to nowhere afraid you might be there
To find me inside this blue train

Countin' the burned bridges trailing this rusted wreck
As our back pages scatter in the dust we left Like a pearl necklace falling from around my neck
I'm ridin' the blue train...
Away down the low road a ticket to an empty room a rendezvous unknown
[guitar]
I'm ridin' the blue train...
I'm ridin' the blue train...
