(john lennon/paul mccartney)Here making each day of the yearChanging my life with one wave of his handNobody can deny that there?s something thereThere running my hands thru his hairBoth of us thinking how good it can be someone is speakingBut he doesn?t know she?s therel want him everywhere and if he?s beside me I know I need never careBut to love him is to meet himEverywhere knowing that love is to shareEach one believing that love never dies watching his eyes and hoping i?mAlways thereTo be here and everywhere here there and everywhereI want him everywhere and if he?s beside me I know I need never careBut to love him is to meet himEverywhere knowing that love is to shareEach one believing that love never dies watching his eyes and hoping i? mAlways thereTo be there and everywhere here there and everywhere
