You used to be someone, who had to be loved,
You used to be someone who had to be heard,
You used to be someone who had to be wanted,
You used to be someone who had to be flointed.
And now, sheâ€™s gonna live with he
Her life is filled with peace.

Chorus:

If you never had to live, then you wouldnâ€™t hear me
say,
That I never wanna see you, baby!
If you never had to go, then you wouldnâ€™t have to
know,
That I really donâ€™t need you, baby!
Tell me!
What are you looking for, out there?
Hey, what are you looking for?

These lessons they have to be learned,
That has to be burned,
These lessons have to be remembered,
And you see right now,
I am so at peace!
My life is filled with peace!

Chorus:

If you never had to live, then you wouldnâ€™t hear me
say,
That I never wanna see you, baby!
If you never had to go, then you wouldnâ€™t have to
know,
That I really donâ€™t need you, baby!
What are you looking for, out there?
Hey, what are you looking for?

Not running for the truth,
My heart is a little bruise that itâ€™s open,
Now itâ€™s broken.
The lessons are learned,
The study keeps on going as I keep on growing and growing.

Not wanting for the truth,
My heart is a little bruise that itâ€™s open,
Now itâ€™s broken.
The lessons are learned,
The study keeps on going as I keep on growing and
growing.

Chorus: (x2)

If you never had to live, then you wouldnâ€™t hear me
say,
That I never wanna see you, baby!
If you never had to go, then you wouldnâ€™t have to
know,
That I really donâ€™t need you, baby!
Tell me!
What are you looking for?
Hey, what are you looking for out there?
Hey, what are you looking for?
Hey, what are you looking for?
