Everything happened
Unexpectedly
I gazed into your eyes
I didn't want to leave

You and your loving ways
Wild and untamed
Passionate, intense,
You have me now...

Leaving is harder
For those who have to leave
All these memories
Will always stay with me!

You and your loving ways
Brought me happiness
My heart will follow you
Where ever you may go...

You and your loving ways
Will always remain
No matter if it ends
My heart will follow you!
