Here I am
Standing on top of your line
Wasting time
I can't hear you say don't cross that line
Get behind
And it all comes down to this
And we're suffering
So we'll end with one last kiss to celebrate
Like a cold december
That you'll always remember
Now you're gone
I can't pretend we're anything anymore

Allison
I can not wait
When these days seem like the fading away

Here I am
Standing on top of your line
Wasting time
I can't hear you say don't cross that line
Get behind

These short lines the signify
In your past out life
But we will see these same lines
Same lines

Like a cold december
That you'll always remember
Now you're gone
I can't pretend we're anything anymore

Here I am
Standing on top of your line
Wasting time
I can't hear you say don't cross that line
Get behind [x2]

How can I feel better than in love
When it has to end
Please don't try hard to say goodbye

All we had
How could you let that one little mistake ruin everything?
If it is your mess
Cause you suck
When it comes to forgiveness
