She falls apart by herself no one's there to talk or understand feels the sting dries her eyes finds herself opens the door and sighs people see right through you everyone who knew you well falls apart, might as well day is long and nothing is wasted runaway, runaway
wanna hold on to you but you're going away
runaway, runaway
wanna hold you tomorrow but you're leaving today you walk along by yourself there's no sound nothing's changing they've gone away left you there emptiness is nothing you can share all those words that hurt you more than you will let it show comes apart by yourself all is well and everything's wasted
runaway, runaway
wanna hold on to you but you're going away
runaway, runaway
sometimes I feel around it scares me some I can't be down all this time to be on my own in is out to be again this time will waste another friend I know where they will know where they'll runaway she's falls apart no one there hold her hand it seems to disappear
runaway, runaway
wanna hold on to you but you're going away
runaway, runaway
wanna hold you tomorrow but you're leaving today
runaway runaway
hold on to you but you're going away but you're leaving today
