You move around like the sound of a melody in my head, just you with your notes and your B but your missing C and that's me, and yeah, its about that time where we need to go somewhere, its true there are things that I think I could show you, but they're not very pretty.

Let's go mad, and we'll drive to the city,
dance all night with your body pressed against me,
stay out late and we'll come back in the morning, let's drive to the city, we'll drive to the city.

Drive to the city,
we'll drive to the city.

Just stop turn the music on don't need money tonight, and yeah we'll laugh with people just 'cause its funny to us, you don't need your things 'cause we've got all we need right in front of me, and we'll set the scene I'll be king and you'll be queen like the movie,
'cause we're so very pretty.

Let's go mad, and we'll drive to the city,
dance all night with your body pressed against me,
stay out late and we'll come back in the morning,

let's drive to the city, we'll drive to the city.

Drive to the city,
drive to the city.

Let's go mad, and we'll drive to the city, drive to the city, drive to the city.

Let's go mad, and we'll drive to the city,
dance all night with your body pressed against me,
stay out late and we'll come back in the morning,
let's drive to the city, we'll drive to the city.

Let's go mad, and we'll drive to the city,
dance all night with your body pressed against me,
stay out late and we'll come back in the morning,
let's drive to the city, we'll drive to the city.

Drive to the city,
drive to the city.
