Will you send me a sign to show me that you're up
there?

I want to believe
open my eyes, i want to know what I'm missing
I want to believe

Why should I trust in something I've never seen before?
in someone I've never met before?
why should i trust in you?
how do I even know that you're even there?

Will you send me a sign to show me that you're up
there?
I want to believe
open my eyes, i want to know what I'm missing

I'm not the man I thought I would be can you help me?
I'm so full of sin, the evil's inside me will you help me?

They say there's nothing, and that I'm foolish to believe so
and that it's all inside my head tell me this is what I've waited for

Will you send me a sign to show me that you're up
there?
I want to believe
open my eyes because I want to feel your grace and this time I'm sure, I know that you're listening

Cover your eyes, forget what you see.
