Yeah,
Put your ones up ,yeah put your ones up Yeah it's the truth 'fam I spit my heat in proof 'fam you

not about the struggle E16 where certain man never see 16,
John 3:16 that's why I rap about 3 16's Cos the devil got his demons showing 3 sixes

Lord help me, show me your ropes Your holy so show me the ghost, and I ain't talking bout the Rolls (Royce),

Don't care for the whips and chains, brothers might as well still be whipped and chained gotta switch the lanes look around like which to blame?
And I stop and I look at myself here without sin, throw the first stone
I throw the book at myself

It's a hard life with some hard times that's why when I get a minute to breathe I get on my knees and I'm sending one up

For all my brothers on the road I pray that they find their way home, Yeah I'm sending one up for all my cousins in a hustle I pray that they make it through the struggle, I'm sending one up for all my sisters in a bad situation I pray that your escaping, I'm sending one up for everyone in this world we all need a little help I'm sending one up

There's a few brothers that I don't see no more and a few brothers that can't see me be, It feels like it was all good last year so what the hell happened to my brother DDT you know that I believe in you 'fam it's for a reason God put you on this earth

And I know we speak one in a while but when It hurts man I put it in the verse and I'm sittin' in the church re-siting all the names of the people that had faith but they stray from the steeple for a reason or another but I leave it all with God's plans I'm never judging man I leave it all In God's hands

And you know I try to stay close, last night man I sent one up for Jay Dolph and there's a few more that I won't name so I'll just get on my knees and I'm sending one up

For all my brothers on the road I pray that they find
their way home,
Yeah I'm sending one up for all my cousins in a hustle I pray that they make it through the struggle, I'm
sending one up for all my sisters in a bad situation I pray that your escaping, I'm sending one up for
everyone in this world we all need a little help I'm

Songs don't have three verses no more somethin' to do with radio play but when I'm spittin' lyrics that are this real who gives a flyin' monkeys what the radio says for the next couple minutes listen up there's power in prayer so I'm never givin' up and this is for the homeless that are never given love for the single mother that would never ever get enough

I tell em' bout faith I tell em' bout peace I tell em' bout grace I tell em' bout He I tell em' bout all the times that Guvna though that he was rock bottom and he realised the only way was up so he got there and remembered that he weren't the only one with a problem so he told it with a prayer even though it seemed illogic

I kneel before God so I stand before anyone that's why I get on my knees and I'm sending one up

For all my brothers on the road I pray that they find
their way home,
Yeah I'm sending one up for all my cousins in a hustle I pray that they make it through the struggle, I'm
sending one up for all my sisters in a bad situation I pray that your escaping, I'm sending one up for
everyone in this world we all need a little help I'm

Yeah I'm sending one up ooohh that's right I'm sending one up for all my sisters in a bad situation, escaping I'm sending one up everyone in this world up

I'm sendin' one up
