Everybody knows each other, everybody moves away.
Everybody knows the colour, everybody seems to pray.
Everybody claps their hands, everybody wants to play.
Everybody knows each other, everybody moves away.
Everybody tries to follow, everybody seems to care.
Everybody wants to succeed, everybody seems to fail
And I cause so much trouble! And I cause so much trouble!

And you're trying to keep all your fantasies away
But you can't make it all the way!
And you're trying to keep all your fantasies away
But you can't make it all the way!

Everybody makes some mistakes, everybody says it's fate.
Everybody lives for himself, everybody wants to change.
Everybody forgets your name, everybody knows your face.
Everybody wants to be first, everybody ends up last.
Everybody needs a lover, everybody finds a friend.
Everybody knows each other, everybody moves away.

And you're trying to keep all your fantasies away
But you can't make it all the way!
And you're trying to keep all your fantasies away
But you can't make it all the way!

Everybody knows each other, everybody moves away.
Everybody knows the colour, everybody seems to pray.
Everybody claps their hands, everybody wants to play.
Everybody knows each other, everybody moves away.
Everybody tries to follow, everybody seems to care.
Everybody wants to succeed, everybody seems to fail
And I cause so much trouble! And I cause so much trouble!

And you're trying to keep all your fantasies away
But you can't make it all the way!
And you're trying to keep all your fantasies away

But you can't make it all the way... YEAH!
