(Intro)

Oh, hey

Oh, hey

Yeah

(Verse 1)

Sometimes you feel he don't love you

Strumming your pain with his finger nails to make it hurt

Sometimes you feel he don't want you

No matter how you try

He just don't seem to know your worth

(Pre Hook)

Like living in two separate worlds at the same time

With all communications offline

So let me turn off your satellite

He's not there

If you're looking for superman

I'm right here

(Hook)

And you won't have to cry yourself to sleep

You can have my heart it's you're to keep

You won't have to hide your pain no more

Cause he doesn't love you like before

No he don't ever

Hold you like that

Touch you like that

Kiss you like I do

No he don't ever

Listen like that

Miss you like that

Love you like I do

No he doesn't love you

(Verse 2)

Sometimes you feel like you want to runaway

From the rain and blues sky's that turn to gray

And there's no turning back

So how

Will he react when you're gone
And you moved on

(Pre Hook)

Like living in two separate worlds at the same time
With all communications offline
So let me turn off your satellite
He's not there
If you're looking for superman
I'm your superman!

(Hook)

And you won't have to cry yourself to sleep
You can have my heart it's you're to keep
You won't have to hide your pain no more
Cause he doesn't love you like before
No he don't ever
Hold you like that
Touch you like that
Kiss you like I do

No he don't ever
Listen like that
Miss you like that
Love you like I do
No he doesn't love you

Love you, Love you
No he doesn't love you
Love you, Love you
No he doesn't love you
Love you, Love you
No he doesn't love you anymore

(Hook)

And you won't have to cry yourself to sleep
You can have my heart it's you're to keep
You won't have to hide your pain no more
Cause he doesn't love you like before
No he don't ever
Hold you like that
Touch you like that
Kiss you like I do

No he don't ever
Listen like that
Miss you like that
Love you like I do
No he doesn't love you
