I can tell a story
About a girl I knew
Draw the perfect picture
But it wouldn't be all truth

Envision every moment
Relay it back to you
Write it down in scripture
But you would know its you

A woman out for love
But she gets lost along the way
Everyday grows harder
Cuz the light might dim away

I could speak the future
Speak of your love as if it were mine, mine
Use yu as my subject
But I'm still lost as to what it is
And tryna find

A woman out for love
But you gets lost along the way
You think a man is the answer
Truth is you're our only way
So envision every moment
relay it back to me
I'll write a song for forever
The light will always stay

(Music Break)

I'll write a song
For forever more

I'll write you all the songs
So the light won't dim away
Just to envision every woman
lost her true love
Imagine every lover
Filled with peace and trust

Envision every woman
Lost her true love
Imagine every lover
Filled with peace and trust

Envision every woman
Lost her true love
Imagine every lover
Filled with peace and trust

Truth
