Come to my room aaaah
Just come to my room baby
All I want you to do is Lay in my bed
I'll do anything you ask from me

Listen
I usually see you
Around my way every day and I ask myself
How could I don't know?
Don't know your name?
Where you from?
Where you've been and it kills me, ah, kills me

I'm not the kind of man to be afraid to say:
Halo, how you've been, what you doing, where you going
I'm not the kind of man to let the chance slept away, so baby let me tell what I got to say

Just come to my room and I'll show you think never seen in this world, Just lay in my bed and I guarantee you won't want to leave
I'll cook for you.
So I can be your special for today
So I can be your special for today
Just come to my room

So if you are ready for me,
You can be all the way to the stars, stop at Venus, went to Mars, baby take the key Open my dreams and you will see you are lying next to me

Come to my room, so I show you thinks never seen in this world
Just lay in my bed and I guarantee you won't want to leave
I'll cook for you.
So I can be your special for today

So I can be your special for today, special for today
...oh yeeeh
