

Jesse Ruben

"A Lack Of Armor"

Visit "A Lack Of Armor" on MotoLyrics.com

Do me a favor, tell me how it felt
When you and I, were drinking wine, watching candles melt
And when this is over, we can reconcile
Cause I'm staying out of New York for a while

And I tried to forget you but
The memories got stuck and now they're on display
And you're over, October
And now my back is turned to Broadway

She said "I love you, don't say that enough,
But I been stumbling these times are tough"
And since I left you, I've counted every mile
Cause I'm staying out of New York for a while

And I tried to forget you but
The memories got stuck and now they're on display
And you're over, October
And now my back is turned to Broadway

Like a pilot when the engine dies,
I've abandoning my plans
And like a knight without his armor
I don't know who I am

How's life without me, only been a few days
But I have traveled many roads since we parted ways
I watched the sun set, cause it makes you smile
Cause I'm staying out of New York for a while

And I tried to forget you but
The memories got stuck and now they're on display
And you're over, October
And now my back is turned to Broadway

Visit Jesse Ruben page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.