How many times will I hold my breath
Before you are gone, my love
How many ways will I count the days
That are left before you are gone, my love
Before you are gone, my love
And I don't mind that there will be times
You don't trust, I don't mind
If they might get jealous of us
I will find out what works, fix when it hurts
Give you whatever you need
But I need you to hear this
When it comes to you, love, I'll be fearless
How many times will I kiss your skin
Before you are gone, my love
How will you fix every mood that I'm in
Before you are gone, my love
Before you are gone, my love
And I don't mind that there will be times
You don't trust, I don't mind
If they might get jealous of us
I will find out what works, fix when it hurts
Give you whatever you need
But I need you to hear this
When it comes to you, love, I'll be fearless
So what does that mean for our future
What does that mean for us
How can the way that you look at me mean so much
I don't have all the answers
And I don't want all the answers
And I don't need all the answers
And I don't mind that there will be times
You don't trust, I don't mind
If they might get jealous of us
I will find out what works, fix when it hurts
Give you whatever you need
But I need you to hear this
When it comes to you, love, I'll be fearless
