I'm going uphill to a fabulous place
With a fancy face of a different taste,
To observe and leave clean without a trace
And feed insane right from the base,
Feeling high but not dying - living help free
Suicide's not my line - living help free
Working that punk now, build it nicely,
Check our new place we'll call it home,

Abortion from misery's crown,
Build me the house that I've found,
Pieces from the puzzle make my peace,
The spirits still remain here and, I'm gonna...
Unlike what we learned in sixth grade
This is a skill we can use until the end,
It's wise to be suspicious but can't you see
"The enemy of my enemy isn't my friend", fans holler.
