Everyday
You walk on by
I get out of your way
You just don't have time
For your heart to get stolen
Heart to be broken
By some man
Who just isn't worth it
It's just too hard
So you put up your guard

No one can break through
You don't have to do it on your own
No one can get through
And you don't have to be made of stone
To make it in this life
To find a peace of mind
Just give love a try

Take a breath
Close your eyes
Believe in me jump in, let go
Hold my hand
Girl, don't be shy
Sometimes you have to lose control
You've got to trust
We can try
To see how much this love can grow
If you look
Then you will find
That you don't have to be alone
Be alone
Don't have to be alone

Honestly
I think you'd find
What true love really means
Girl, if you were mine
You'd finally see
Just what you were missing
All my love

In one tender kiss and
All your pain
Would just melt away

If I could break through
You'd see it's not you against the world
If I could break through
You'd feel so complete being my girl
It's not that you need me
You just need somebody
To break your walls down finally

Take a breath
Close your eyes
Hold my hand
Girl, don't be shy
Sometimes you have to lose control
You've got to trust
We can try
If you look
Then you will find
That you don't have to be alone
Be alone

I know you've been hurt
And I know that you've cried
But when you're in pain
You can't keep it inside
Girl, You never should feel
Like there's nowhere to go
You don't have to be alone

Take a breath
Close your eyes
Believe in me jump in, let go
Hold my hand
Girl, don't be shy
Sometimes you have to lose control
You've got to trust
We can try
To see how much this love can grow
If you look
Then you will find
That you don't have to be alone

Take a breath
Close your eyes
Believe in me jump in, let go
Hold my hand

Girl, don't be shy
Sometimes you have to lose control
You've got to trust
We can try
To see how much this love can grow
If you look
Then you will find
That you don't have to be alone
Be alone
