call me obsessed, alone would take a mad man but im depressed, im drowning in the sadness try to stay above the water, remember to breathe but nothings hurting me more than watching you leave if you ever call me, ill always pick up the phone and if you ever need me, ill never leave you alone and if were gonna be together or apart youll always have a place here in my heart, my heart

it comes to show that lonely aint no friend of mine baby just knowing its his hand youre holding, i die inside its breaking me down, yeah, yeah, yeah to lose what we found, yeah, yeah, yeah why do good things have to end?
baby lonely aint my friend, aint my friend things on my mind, from going a hundred miles an hour remembering times before it all went sour just when i thought that forever was in reach this lonely thing keeps creeping up on me

and if were gonna be together or apart

baby just knowing its his hand youre holding, i die inside
why do good things have to end?

baby just knowing its his hand youre holding, i die inside
to lose what we found, yeah, yeah, yeah
why do good things have to end?

baby just knowing its his hand youre holding, i die inside
to lose what we found, yeah, yeah, yeah
why do good things have to end?
