As everyday passes I'm loosing faith in you
One day we're forever the next day we're through
You push me away then beg me to stay
You have got me so confused
Cause baby you gotta love somebody like I love you
If I don't think that somebody loves me too
So give me a sign or baby this is goodbye
Just tell me the truth

Why whenever something is wrong I always take the blame
Why whenever my love is strong you always run away
You can't handle my love and your love's never enough
And I can't live that way
Why whenever we have a fight I'm begging you to stay
Why when everything is alright it only lasts a day
You're never satisfied with nothing that I provide
And I can't live that way

So pretend a moment that you are in my shoes
And the person that you're loving is thinking what have
I got to loose
Girl it's hurts so bad to think of what we had Didn't mean a thing to you
So just stop (stop stop)
And listen to what I'm telling you
I'm not (not not)
Gonna fight for something that isn't true
So if you just don't love me
If you think that I'm nothing
The door's waiting for you

Why whenever something is wrong I always take the
blame
Why whenever my love is strong you always run away
You can't handle my love and your love's never enough
And I can't live that way
Why whenever we have a fight I'm begging you to stay
Why when everything is alright it only lasts a day
You're never satisfied with nothing that I provide
And I can't live that way

Girl you kill me inside (you're gonna stay or go)
Why don't you make up your mind (I can't put my life on hold)
So baby this is goodbye I've got no tears left to cry
Because you never told me why

Why whenever something is wrong
Why whenever my love is strong you always run away
You can't handle my love and your love's never enough
And I can't live that way
Why whenever we have a fight I'm begging you to stay
Why when everything is alright it only lasts a day
You're never satisfied with nothing that I provide
And I can't live that way

Why whenever something is wrong
Why whenever my love is strong (yeah yeah)
You can't handle my love and your love's never enough
And I can't live that way
Why whenever we have a fight
Why when everything is alright
You're never satisfied with nothing that I provide
And I can't live that way
