Gotta be, gotta be ready for it [x8]

Wanna make it clear
And really say it all
Well it just keeps swirling 'round
Inside our crystal ball

Trick or treat then vanish with my stolen goods
I find myself all lost inside my neighbourhood

There's a darkness in our hearts
And my smile hides an aching heart
Although we're close, we're miles apart
Don't let this darkness fill our hearts

Hey I'm not like everybody else
You're not like everybody else
Face the facts

Mirror thoughts keep bouncing up and down my spine
Well I hypnotize myself that everything is fine
Expressing what I'm feeling though it hurts to say
When the novelty wears off and we just drift away

There's a darkness in our hearts
And my smile hides an aching heart
Although we're close, we're miles apart
Don't let this darkness fill our hearts

I'm not like everybody else
You're not like everybody else

Darkness in our hearts
And my smile hides an aching heart
Although we're close, we're miles apart
Don't let this darkness fill our hearts

Gotta be, gotta be ready for it [x16]
