When i turn to my favourite hideaway cause i hope we will always be the same only half the plan

once i thought that i was over you but now you're back and i'm falling like a fool you know what i am

i've rendered you my big fantasy i shared you in insanity
my eagerness to tangle, i can't hang this up with you

i can sense it will be a thrill keepin up with you

all alone and i misplaced your keys so let me in cause i'm about to freeze with my jealousy i'm trying hard to persuade myself that you aren't everything i need but i turn too weak

i rendered you my big fantasy
i shared you in insanity
my eagerness to tangle,

oh darling, call me back before
before
