I've been searching for love
I'm sorry I escaped you I wonder how I will end For now, I'll carry on through and bite my jealous lip and hope to turn it to a kiss take this night from me girl you're stunningly divine you're the love I've been searching for cos I will be true and be faithful and that's not like me

so take the night from me and now my worried concave of thoughts won't linger anymore because I've been trying my best yet still I've been skipping through my years to cover my sacred tears, ready for the heartaches and fears

take it from me

and then darling you will ask me where I've been
take it from me
take it from me
