Always by your side, you cheated stole and lied
So tell me who's to point their finger?
The years go by so fast; I won't live in the past
I've moved on and I don't need you

Were you ever on my side?
You've taken everything that's mine
I don't care that he is with you
Cause I am better off without you

Always there for you, honest tried and true
Yet you didn't really trust me
Were you ever there for me? Did I ever care to see?
All the times that you deceived me

Were you ever on my side?
You've taken everything that's mine
I don't care that he is with you

Cause I am better off without you

Reach for me and I'm not there, hold me now and I don't care
I've moved on and I don't need you

Always by your side, you cheated stole and lied
So tell me who's to point their finger?

Were you ever on my side?
You've taken everything that's mine
I don't care that he is with you
Cause I am better off without you
I am better off without you
I am better off without you
I am better off without
