There you are; there you stand
Well there you go; well here I am
I know you; you know me
Isn't it obvious? Or can't you see?

That I am falling for you
Yes I'm in lust it's so true
And with every step I have to take
And every move I try to make
What do I have to do?
To get with you

Well I've known girls, like you before
You think I'd learn, but I still want more
I think of you everyday
But how am I to know if you feel the same?

Cause I am falling for you
Yes I'm in lust it's so true
And with every step I have to take

And every move I try to make
What do I have to do?

In these ever-changing days, you're the one thing that remains
And I've known you all along
So will I ever get with you? Cause you know that I'll stay true
Cause you've known me all along

Cause I am falling for you
Yes I'm in lust it's so true
And with every step I have to take
And every move I try to make
What do I have to do?
To get with you
Get with you
Get with you
Get with you
