Every thing but this faded love
I still catch some, yeah
Candles bright and I'm feeling rough
I'll survive
Every thing but this faded love
I still catch some, yeah
Taking all my faith ah-way
I'll survive

Now that I'm thinking of you,
Can we do it again?
Do we face everything?
And I swear I could hold you all day

Every thing but this faded love
I still catch some, yeah
Candles bright and I'm feeling ROUGH
I'll survive
Every thing but this faded love
I still catch some, yeah
Taking all this faith again
by surprise

Now that I'm thinking of you,
Can we do it again?
Do we face every thing?
And I swear I could hold you all day

Every thing but this faded love
I still catch some, yeah
Taking all this faith away
Every thing but this faded love
I still catch some, yeah
Taking all this faith again
I'll survive
