But the white girls say, "Where you get that cool beat from?"

She love it (She love it)

Every beat of the drum, she sprung

She say I make her wanna touch it

She love it (She love it)

She make me wanna touch it

I love it (I love it)

We buzzin', yeah

Higher than a motherfucker

Higher than a motherfucker

Higher than a motherfucker, yeah

Yeah, I've been known to chase 'em

Known to replace 'em

Shoe game outta this world, I outer space 'em

Known to have a hundred and one, like Dalmatians

Maybe if she special enough, I'll glass case her

Get caught cheating, and I gotta let you stick me up

Let you shop til you drop as a pick-me-up

Bergdorf bandit, Barnies for the burglary

But these bands lit the whole store like Hercules

Get raunchy in Givenchy, my palm reads

Passports peed on the wall in arm's reach

Paddle-shipped and push-buttoned, no car keys

The pent houses are poolside with palm trees

She love it

Every beat of the drum, she sprung

She say I make her wanna touch it

She love it (She love it)

She make me wanna touch it

I love it (I love it)

We buzzin', yeah
