Warm as the sun you were the one who outshone me in the darkness, everyone went away you were the one who adored me

And it's so hard, to say goodbye to you so hard, when I want to carry you everywhere, everywhere so I don't forget I'll carry you everywhere, everywhere so I don't forget

But there's a blackbird, singing how long have you been hiding

Lost in the rain you always prayed we would find a way we were watching old movies in our little technicolour hideaway

And on that soft screen the beautiful ladies were movie queens they'd glide on the floor singing melodies, melodies that I can't forget oh love's sweetest reverie, melodies that I can't forget

But there's a blackbird, singing

We've been through so much we've been through everything together We've been through so much
we've been through everything together
