I wish you could see how you make me smile
I wish you could see that there's clear sky
Behind these clouds

I wish you could slow down, look around and see how
You're lucky you're cute
Even when you wear that frown

And I know you hate to be that guy who
Gives up too soon
And you know I hate to be that girl with
Her heart stuck in June

What happens when I don't want this to be the end?
What happens when I don't wanna be...
What happens when I still wanna see you again?
What happens when I don't wanna be...
Over you

Well call me an optimist, stubborn, persistent
I know what you think, but baby, please listen
No matter what you need I'm still here

I remember every detail like it was yesterday
Thinkin' about when we met and everytime after that
Each time you looked at me that way

And I know you hate to be that guy who

Gives up too soon
And you know I hate to be that girl with
Her heart stuck in June

What happens when I don't want this to be the end?
What happens when I don't wanna be...
What happens when I still wanna see you again?
What happens when I don't wanna be...

Every movie tells me
You'll be back
But I'm not sure the real world
Works like that

Every happy ending tears me up
And I know that you don't Believe in that stuff...

What happens when?

What happens when I don't want this to be the end?
What happens when I don't wanna be...
What happens when I still wanna see you again?
What happens when I don't wanna be...

Over you
