For the first time
I want this flight to
Last forever
So I can think this through

Not ready to land
I'm still up in the air
And as I descend
I know you're not there

Again I find
I'm not ready to
Face your words
Cause I fell hard for you

But I say okay
And I let you go
That you need to know

No parachute, no safety net
Not back up plan, you up ran...
From me

Why can't you see?
It's not black and white
I'll wait patiently
Like I have a choice
It's a long time on this flight, you know

Ooh... it's a long way home
Ooh... it's a long way home

For the first time

Everything is blurry
And I can't help
But to start to worry

And I've never been
So happy to be home
But at the same time

I feel so alone

I didn't expect this
To happen today
I couldn't even think of the right
Things to say

And I think that
You'll come around
But what if that
Changes before I hit the ground

No parachute, no safety net
Not back up plan, you up ran...
From me

Why can't you see?
It's not black and white
I'll wait patiently
Like I have a choice
It's a long time on this flight, you know

Ooh... it's a long way home
