We've sought our questions answered
Seeking immortality
Seeking darkness at the same time we ignore the light

Provoking the unseen
The god of the underworld has you in sight
Raping your soul
Unmerciful master of brimstone and fire

Devouring all
There is no escaping the god of the dead
You've made your bed
Now it's time you've slept in it

Demon of dreams
Life is not all that it seems
Leading the blind
Through your passage of screams

The oracle of the dead
A shrine to lay your head
Into obscurity denying heaven's light
Falling to your knees

The path you've chosen
Is a hell you can't describe
This evil deity
